

Meet our team

Leah moved to Portland in 2021 from northern New Jersey where she was born and raised. She is first generation American. Her first language is Spanish and her parents are originally from Colombia.

Leah is passionate about making healthcare accessible to everyone. She holds a BS in Biology from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. Leah is interested in pursuing further education by obtaining a doctorate in research or pursuing a medical degree.

She is excited to be in Maine to hike, ski, and trail run on new mountains.

Leah Robayo

Medical Receptionist

leah@allianceptme.com

“Leah is passionate about making healthcare accessible to everyone.”
